EVENTS COMMITTEE

September 11, 2017

Members in attendance were Kathy Gregory, Bill Goff and Raoul Epling. Mary Tessier was in attendance.

Minutes for the August meeting were approved as written.

1. Sixteen people attended the viewing of "Gifted". The October movie will be "The Founder". Other movie ideas are: "Patriot's Day", "A Dog's Purpose" and "The Last Word".

2. Classes & Programs:

There are quite a few people signed up for the Spouse/Partner Loss Support Group, which is scheduled for September 21st – November 9th. The Computer Club is willing to meet later on those Thursdays so that the group can use the whole Conference Room instead of half. Mary will meet with the facilitator on Thursday to go over the room set up. Mary will check with Kathy & Joe to see if they still want to host a Dance Fever Party on October 22nd.

Only two people attended the Papers Crafts class in September. We will try offering the class at the Recreation Center in October to try to attract more people.

The "Distinguished Americans" class with Frank Damon will begin on September 15th. The Sunday Ballroom Dancers are happy to be back at the Senior Center. The Zumba classes may also be moving back to the Senior Center.

The Birthday Club Dinner is full for September.

3. Presentations:

The educational session on Wills, Trusts and Estate Planning went well with 38 people in attendance. There are 9 people signed up for the Falls Prevention class entitled "Stepping Out Strong" on September 22nd. The class will include lecture and some strength and balance exercises. We will schedule a session on "Everything You Wanted to Know about Cable" in October.

4. Trips:

The final casino trip of the year will be to Graton on October 16th. Everyone enjoyed the "Million Dollar Quartet" trip and the change in the pick-up point to the Senior Center went smoothly. People are slowly signing up for the October 22nd trip to see "Blithe Spirit". Dorothy is receiving registrations for the Horse Race trip, which will benefit AARP. The final trip for 2017 will be to Sacramento for lunch and the "Singing Christmas Tree" show.

- 5. Parties: Mary discussed entertainment options for October with the Committee. We will have Bob Monticelli for an Oktoberfest theme and serve Bratwurst that day. On Columbus Day we will serve Spaghetti & Meatballs and have the Bob Gutierrez Band for dancing and Ron Borelli in the lunch room for Italian accordion music.
- 6. The next Events Committee Meeting will be on October 16th at 1:00 pm. We are cancelling the November & December meetings due to vacations and holidays.

Purchase of Memorial Bench at the Bocce Ball Court

BACKGROUND:

Some of the Horseshoe and Bocce players have expressed interest in honoring Ken Kreisel with a memorial bench. Members of the Horseshoe League donated $250 in memory of Ken and the Bocce League has also contributed $250. The bench would be installed at the Bocce Ball court.

DISCUSSION:

Consistent with other memorial benches purchased as memorials, the cost would be $1,000. This includes the purchase of the bench, the installation and the purchase of the memorial bronze plaque. The synthetic turf for the Bocce court is scheduled to be installed in October. This would provide the opportunity to install the new bench in honor of Ken and all his hard work to keep the Bocce Ball court maintained and the leagues running smoothly.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Staff is requesting $500 from the Senior Advisory Board Trust Fund be appropriated to fund the balance needed to purchase the bench.
